

About Kurbingui

Kurbingui Youth and Family Development is a not-for-profit organisation dedicated to supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children, Young People, Individuals, Families and Communities across South East Queensland.

Since 2001, Kurbingui has delivered a diverse range of Culturally Responsive Programs and Services that Strengthen Families, Support Wellbeing, Create Opportunities and Empower Individuals to Achieve Their Goals.

Through a Strong Commitment to Culture, Community and Collaboration, we work alongside people at every stage of life to Build Positive Outcomes and Stronger Futures.

Our Services focus on Early Intervention, Family Support, Youth Development, Disability Support, Education, Employment Pathways, Cultural Engagement and Community Wellbeing.

We recognise the importance of culture, connection and community in creating lasting change and supporting people to thrive.
