

About Kurbingui

Kurbingui Youth and Family Development is a not-for-profit organisation dedicated to supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children, Young People, Individuals, Families and Communities across South East Queensland.

Since 2001, Kurbingui has delivered a diverse range of Culturally Responsive Programs and Services that Strengthen Families, Support Wellbeing, Create Opportunities and Empower Individuals to Achieve Their Goals.

Through a Strong Commitment to Culture, Community and Collaboration, we work alongside people at every stage of life to Build Positive Outcomes and Stronger Futures.

Our Services focus on Early Intervention, Family Support, Youth Development, Disability Support, Education, Employment Pathways, Cultural Engagement and Community Wellbeing.

We recognise the importance of culture, connection and community in creating lasting change and supporting people to thrive.

Hours of Operation

Monday 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Tuesday 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Wednesday 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Thursday 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Friday 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

*After Hours by Appointment Only.

Contact Us

425 Zillmere Road, Zillmere QLD 4034

(07) 3156 4800

reception@kurbingui.org.au

www.kurbingui.org.au

FOLLOW US ON SOCIALS!

Kurbingui

youth & family development

Yadeni Tago

"Advancing Together"

Yadeni Tago Overview

Yadeni Tago, also known as the Combined Indigenous and non-indigenous Family and Child Connect for the Greater Brisbane region is delivered by Kurbingui Youth and Family Development. This integrated model in called "Yadeni Tago" which is Turrbal language for "Advancing Together".

The team comprises of a multicultural and multidisciplinary team that brings a wealth of skills and knowledge to the program. The team makeup provides a great opportunity for all team members to share their skills and knowledge which includes but is not limited to, working with families using frameworks and approaches incorporated into culturally safe practices for Indigenous, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse and other non-indigenous families. Yadeni Tago staff ensure that families have the choice to work with Indigenous and non-indigenous support staff to meet their individual needs. Yadeni Tago staff are committed to maintain a culturally safe place for both staff and families they work with.

What Yadeni Tago Can Offer

- The option for families to work with Indigenous or Non-Indigenous Family Response Facilitators.
- Integrated service delivery.
- Access to resources, knowledge, and skills of staff.

We connect Families to local services that can help with:

- Supporting children, early years challenging behaviour.
- Building strong family relationships.
- Increasing safety in the home.
- Budgeting and managing money.
- Alcohol, drug or gambling problems.
- Housing, Healthcare or other community or government services.
- Parenting Programs.
- Domestic Family Violence Specialist Support.

How to Access the Program

A message bank service is available outside of these hours.

Families can self-refer by phone, online or by coming into the office at 445 Zillmere Road, Zillmere QLD 4034.

Referrals can be made directly by calling 13-FAMILY or 133 264 or online at:

www.familychildconnect.org.au

It is recommended that professionals use the online referral form, but are also welcome to call.

13FAMILY or 13 32 64

www.familychildconnect.org.au

Hours of Operation

Inala Office Office Hours are 8:30 am to 5:30 pm.

Where We Are Located

Zillmere

445 Zillmere Road, Zillmere QLD 4034

Inala

38 Sitella Street, Inala QLD 4077

Program Catchment

North Brisbane and Moreton Bay

This program is funded by the Department of Child Safety, Seniors and Disability Services.

Kurbingui is committed to the safety and wellbeing of children and young people through the implementation of the Queensland Child Safe Standards, including the Universal Principle, and the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations.